

Senior Brag Sheet (2024)

Teacher recommendation letters for college admission and scholarships should be unique and reflect on your experiences within the classroom, interacting with peers and faculty. College admissions want to read anecdotes and specific examples of your personal strengths and experiences. By answering the questions and prompts below, you will remind your teacher about your experiences and activities in class.

Student Name _____ Student Email _____

Teacher Name _____ Course Name _____

1. What was your favorite topic covered in the class? Why did you like it? What insight did you gain from having taken this course?

-
2. Remind me of a specific conversation/interaction we shared that provides insight into how your mind works and how you participated?